STENTON DEFEATS FLEISHER YARNERS

Greishaber Driven From Box as Lefty Nolan's Crew Is Beaten-Scott Stars

STONEHURST IS CRUSHED

Greishaber didn't look so good against Stenton last night at Phil-Ellens and Musgrave streets, and Lefty Nolan's Fleisher Yarners were knocked for a mill, or words to that effect, by a 9-to-6

Eight hits were made off the big Yarner twirler in the first five innings, land then Hockenbury relieved him. But the game was already lost, and Nolan's erew will have to wait until tonight to get another chance. Johnny Scott starred in defeat for Fleisher. In three trips to the plate the ex-Lafayette athlete had a homer and a triple, hesides accepting four chances without a mishap.

Jim Bonner's Shanahan crew made a trip to East Falls and stopped the J. & J. Dobson club in rather casy fashion. 4 to 1. Devine, who started for Bonner, almost twirled shutout hall, Dobson getting its lone run on a face hit in the seventh frame. luke hit in the seventh frame,

METROPOLITAN

New York owners of the famed Celties have put their Eastern League basketball franchise on the market and are eager to get out of professional basketball in this vicinity. Such was the startling announcement made by James Fury, one of the owners of the New York cage team, at the annual meeting of the Eastern League held at the Hotel Windsor last night.

Fury in giving his reason that he desired to withdraw from the Eastern League admitted he had already entered a team in Metropolitan League, of New York and Brooklyn, and that he had also dropped some $7000 on Eastern and independent ball last winter. He also intimated that the Celtics would be a better proposition playing in the Metropolitan League, as that organi-zation intended to branch out this win-ter and include a few clubs just outside of New York.

This declaration upon the part of Fury surprised some of the club owners present at the meeting, but others did not seem to take much interest in the fact that the Celties would probably be
